

C8D – LABORATORY TECHNOLOGY
OCTOBER 22, 2001

Title/Class Code	Education/Experience/Licensure/Certification	Substitutions
LAB TECHNOLOGY I C8D1TX	Two years of laboratory experience appropriate to the position. Some assignments may require certification by American Society of Clinical Pathologists (ASCP) or equivalent.	Education which provided the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required experience may substitute for the experience on a year-for-year basis.
LAB TECHNOLOGY II C8D2XX	Some positions may require five years of laboratory experience appropriate to the position. Some positions with working assignments as medical technologist may require a two year degree in medical laboratory technology, biology, chemistry or microbiology, completion of formal residency or internship program and certification by the American Society of Clinical Pathologists (ASCP) or equivalent.	Work experience that provides the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute for the education. Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in medical technology, chemistry or biological science may substitute for up to four years of works experience.
LAB TECHNOLOGY III C8D3XX	Positions with working assignments as medical technologist may require graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in medical technology, chemistry or biological sciences, certification or registration appropriate to the position and two years of experience as a Registered Medical Technologist. Positions with working assignments as dental laboratory technologist must have three years of experience, knowledge of dental technology and some may require certification.	Work experience that provides the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute for the education. Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in medical technology, chemistry or biological science may substitute for up to four years of works experience.

Title/Class Code	Education/Experience/Licensure/Certification	Substitutions
LAB TECHNOLOGY IV C8D4XX	Positions with working assignments as medical technologist may require graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in medical technology, chemistry or biological sciences, certification or registration appropriate to the position and two years of experience as a Registered Medical Technologist that must include one year of lead-work experience. Positions with working assignments as dental laboratory technologist must have five years of experience, knowledge of dental technology and some may require certification.	Work experience that provides the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may substitute for the education. Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in medical technology, chemistry or biological science may substitute for up to four years of works experience.